Have you placed your bid yet for the Snow Trails lift pass auction? You have until Sunday, January 3rd, at 6:00 pm. I sent out a group email on December 28th to the membership after mending a tear in the SCSC communication fabric. See the link on the front page. You can thank all of the members who bought passes this year for the opportunity to bid on this unlimited pass. I know Dave Schraft, and a group of members is planning to ski Snow Trails on January 15th. If you are interested, just let me know, and I will forward you to him.

I feel that two thousand twenty literally dropped the ball this year. The year ended with more government money on the way to some of us. A new, faster spreading mutated Covid strain is here now. The vaccinating process has begun around the world. At the current rate of vaccination, we should be done in about 10 years. What is next? So continue to remain safe, wear your mask, social distance yourselves, remain vigilant in reducing your exposure time among the masses, and read-n-click the newsletter links.

Now for some notable newsletter changes, I have placed some hyperlinks on the front page for you to explore. You can find the meeting minutes just under the Zoom meeting notice. Bill and I are starting to transition current, past, and future SCSC information onto a cloud system so future club officers will have access. We are revisiting the idea for members to pay online with a minimal digital footprint.

I hope that while you were giving thanks over the past two months, you included not only the scientists but also the volunteers who bared their arms to accept and test these vaccines. The scientific community is optimistically reporting that by the fall of this year we should be on the majority side of the path to normalcy. So until then, let us focus on the two remaining trips scheduled this year and remain sane throughout the vaccination process.

Gail summited a couple of ski cartoons for the newsletter on the following pages.
I had to add a few alternative comments for the pictures out of my bent sense of humor.

Trip Committee Chair John Masalko

I hope everyone had a great and Merry Christmas!

I know I always say it's been a tough year, but it HAS been a tough year! For myself, starting the day before Thanksgiving, I was not feeling well and had my covid test done, and guess what?? I had covid. I am still recovering, still have episodes of fatigue and tiredness, and lack of energy. By now, I would have been out to Snow Trails a couple of times, but I am not feeling it. I also infested my family, Eleanor, and Breanna. I want to thank everyone who wished me well. Well, that's enough about me.

The Timberline/Canaan trip, February 21st through February 23rd, is up to 19 people signed up. The deadline for the group room rate is 1/21/21. (Let's get signed up!) If you prefer the option of staying an extra night at the beautiful Canaan lodge, the group room rate will remain the same. Please contact trip leader Scott Hunsinger for more details. His e-mail address is huns@roadrunner.com, or phone 330-340-7548.

The Breckenridge trip -March 27th to April 1st-updates-24 people have reserved spots on this trip. There is still lodging available on this trip. The airline group rates deadline has PASSED, but you still can check with SKI.COM on-air availability and pricing. Remember people with the Epic pass, you will need to make reservations for the days you would like to ski at Breckenridge.

If you're interested in this trip, you will need to contact SKI.COM or 1-800-6472-3260-Ext. 3028 for availability.

Snow Trails, if you are a group season pass holder, no reservations are needed. Snow Trails is open with a good base.

Boston Mills opens January 1st (which is sold out)

Brandywine is still making snow and are not open at the present time.
