View From The Top By: Mike Bishop

As a reminder, you may find the September meeting minutes via the link on the front page of this newsletter. Procrastination time is now over for all of those unvaccinated ski bums out there, for Vail Resorts has set up this season's new indoor Covid protocol. I have inserted a section of the indoor safety protocol for all of their resorts. You can find the complete list by following the link at the bottom of my article. Maybe this will encourage some more of our members to sign up for the Mt. Snow and or the Park City trips.

Included in this month's newsletter is the Snow Trails season pass with the option of using your SCSC vouchers/certificates towards the cost. There are four pages dedicated to the season pass options that do include a senior's pass. The cutoff date to use your SCSC vouchers is October 24th, and that means that Melba or Scott must have your application and any payment balance in HAND on October 24th. Of course, when you wake up on the 25th you can still go to the Snow Trails website and get your discounted pass until October 31. If you suddenly find yourself aware that it is All Saints Day, you can still use those SCSC vouchers/certificates to sign up for any of the local trips and do so it online too.

Dig deep into this month's cryptic newsletter and you will find some spooktacular things that will most certainly make you go hmmm. Oct 2, you could join the busload to roam the Ohio countryside in search of spirits to partake, or brews to sample for a howling good time. Oct 15 & 23, you can sacrifice your time with Donna for any AVI event and reap a new ghastly voucher amount and helping the club. Oct 24, is the frightful deadline to complete the Snow Trails voucher spell. Oct 27, Diane is also brewing up something special this time of year, and someone maybe awarded if their attire proves to be the best of the crowd. Oct 19, I will be lurking within my crypt confinement to spew spine-tingling ski treats of information. Oct 30, Jason will lure all night-floaters into a heart-pounding kayak illuminating evening through the shadowy figures. On Oct 31, you can join Gail at the Haunted Forest Marathon daring runners to grab a drink from their hands. All Oct, Joyce has offered to save any soul brave enough to step into the Ski Shack from the pain of overspending.

Feel free to contact me with any SCSC questions. President@StarkCountySkiClub.org

Epic Pass News: This season, Vail Resorts will focus on COVID-19 safety protocols in indoor spaces.

Mountain Access: They will not have a mountain reservation system this season and will load lifts and gondolas at normal capacity, optimizing guest movement around the resorts.

Face Coverings: Face coverings will be required in indoor settings, including in restaurants, lodging properties, restrooms, retail and rental locations, and on buses.

Dining – Reservations: Like last season, guests will be required to book a reservation to eat at many of our on-mountain restaurants.

Dining – Vaccinations: Guests will be required to show proof of COVID-19 vaccinations to dine at our indoor, and on-mountain quick-service (cafeteria-style) restaurants.

I thought I read somewhere that they were going to link the vaccination to your pass, but I could not confirm that today. Website notes that more information will be coming prior to the season

Employee Safety: They will be requiring all of our employees to have COVID-19 vaccinations

Snow Trails Online Website Tips:

- 1) Set up an account first. This will allow you to select the person assigned to the pass you are buying. If you had an account last year, you won't be able to login with last year's credentials as Snowtrails is using a new ecommerce system. However, once you enter your details, it will get matched to your existing account email, and details such as your name, photo, etc, will show up in your account.
  - 2) You won't see the discounted pricing until you enter the promo code in the shopping cart. So just add whichever passes you want (don't forget to add the Pass refund option for $25), then go to the shopping cart and enter the promo code. The prices will then reflect the discount.
  - 3) During checkout you will be asked to read and sign the waiver.
  - 4) Once you reach the payment screen, you will be asked to select your Club ID
(Club ID: M37, Promotion Code: CLUB2122)
- Hope that helps, Jillian
